DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on April 27, 2009 has been entered. Claims 1-4, 6-8, 10-12, 15-18 are pending in this application.

Information Disclosure Statement

2. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on April 27, 2009 was filed after the mailing date of the Notice of Allowance on February 13, 2009. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

4. Independent claim 1, recites "receiving, at a server, a notification from one of the communication devices indicating that incoming data has been received at the one communication device, where the incoming data includes an incoming call, a voice mail, or a short message service (SMS) message; and transmitting the received notification to the preferred communication device, where transmitting the received notification includes: transmitting a first text message to the preferred communication device when the incoming data includes the incoming call, transmitting a second text message to the preferred communication device when the incoming data includes the voice mail, the second text message providing a function to play back the voice mail and transmitting a third text message to the preferred communication device when the incoming data includes the SMS message, the third text message providing an ability to view the SMS message".

The prior art teaches of receiving notification at a server for voicemail from voice mail system or for a call from call handling system. The prior art of record does not teach of subscriber's device notifying a server about receiving voice mail or short message service (SMS) message, and as a result the server sending a text notification message to the subscriber's preferred communication device providing an ability to view the SMS message.

5. Independent claim 10, recites "a server to: receive a notification from one of the communication devices indicating that incoming data has been received at the one communication device, where the incoming data includes an incoming call, a voice mail, or a short message service (SMS) message; and transmit the notification to the preferred communication device, the notification including an identification of the type of the incoming data, where, when transmitting the notification, the server is further to: transmit a first text message to the preferred communication device when the incoming data includes the incoming call; transmit a second text message to the preferred communication device when the incoming data includes the voice mail, the second text message providing a function to play back the voice mail, and transmit a third text message to the preferred communication device when the incoming data includes the SMS message, the third text message providing an ability to view the SMS message".

The prior art teaches of receiving notification at a server for voicemail from voice mail system or for a call from call handling system. The prior art of record does not teach of subscriber's device notifying a server about receiving voice mail or short message service (SMS) message, and as a result the server sending a text notification message to the subscriber's preferred communication device providing an ability to view the SMS message.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
